WASHINGTON — (P) — The White House—beset by a labor revolt over wage controls—early today hammered out a pay settlement for 1,000,000 non-operating railroad workers.

The pact will give members of the 15 unions involved an immediate 12½ cent an hour wage boost, plus a cost of living adjustment every three months.

Date Compromised
The 12½ cent pay boost is retroactive to Feb. 1. This represented a compromise. The unions had wanted the increase made effective as of last Dec. 1 and the carriers had advocated a March 1 date.

Today's settlement has no direct bearing on another rail dispute involving operating workers—switchmen, engineers, firemen etc.—who have staged sporadic strikes recently.

The non-operating employees including such workers as shop men, clerks and machinists, had been getting an average pay of $1.43 an hour before the wage increase.

The first of the cost-of-living adjustment—due April 1—is expected to add four or five cents an hour.

Vote May Solve France's Crisis

National Referendum Urged By Deputies

By JOSEPH E. DYNAN
PARIS — (P) — A group of middle-of-the-road deputies today urged a national referendum to solve France's latest governmental crisis.

As President Vincent Auriol plunged into a round of conferences seeking a successor to Premier Rene Plehan, a bloc headed by Vincent de Moro-Giafferri backed a constitutional amendment in parliament to let the voters decide for themselves on the country's electoral system.

Pleven and his three-party coalition cabinet resigned last night, after slightly more than seven months in office, when the national assembly became hopelessly deadlocked on proposed electoral changes.

The national elections are scheduled for next fall. The changes must be made fairly soon to allow the authorities to arrange the ballots in time.

The new proposal would let the voters decide whether their next parliament would be chosen on a personal candidacy basis or by proportional representation, and whether the election would be only a single ballot or would include a runoff.

These issues caused the downfall of the Pleven government. The assembly last night voted down the single ballot system 311 to 295. Rather than ask for a vote of confidence on the runoff system, Pleven resigned after a behind-the-scenes count convinced him such a motion would be defeated.

Eggs From Red China Found In Kalamazoo

LANSING — (P) — A Chinese puzzle has baffled food inspectors for the state agriculture department.

While making a routine check of a Kalamazoo bakery they discovered some powdered eggs from Communist China.

The eggs passed all purity tests so the baker won't be penalized. But the food men still can't figure the channels that carried them all the way from China to Kalamazoo.

Michigan Fiscal Policies Take Severe Lashing

Hoover Report Raps Motley Tax System

LANSING — (P) — The fiscal policy of Michigan's state government took a severe lashing today in one of the most outspoken "little Hoover commission task force" reports yet published.

The report was made by A. E. Buck of the institution of public administration of New York, described as an authority on government finances in the United States and Canada. He reported to the joint legislative committee on governmental reorganization.

Buck said Michigan, "one of the great industrial states of the country," pays a heavy tax burden "in what purports to be a free economy." That burden, he said, is about 36 per cent of the total income payments made in the state.

Spending In Confusion
He said Michigan people last year paid more than three and a half billion dollars in taxes — $443,000,000 to the state.

The money is raised and spent, he said, "by a motley aggregation which tend to confuse and cancel out each other's authority."

First, he said, the people have voted "the most sweeping and disturbing changes" in state fiscal policy by writing into the constitution such amendments as the sales tax diversion, 15-mill tax limitation, Civil Service mandatory appropriation, and highway fund earmarking. In addition, he cited, the approval of a $270,000,000 veterans' bonus bond issue and a $65,000,000 hospital construction bond issue without anyone knowing how they were to be financed.

Buck said the legislature has done little better than the people.

He said Michigan was one of the first to adopt the budget system, but has never developed its use because of legislative suspicion and inaction.

Legislature Hamstrung
He called the creation of the state department of administration "the most constructive move made within recent years" and said the budget it produces compares favorably with any in the nation.

He noted that the people have

Gambling Costs U.S. 20 Billion

Senate Quiz Reveals Staggering Figures

By CHARLES MOLONY

WASHINGTON — (P) — If organized gambling is taking in $20,000,000,000 a year in this country, the American people are putting more into bets than they are into clothing and shoes.

Furthermore, gambling outlays of that size are considerably larger than total retail expenditures for autos and parts plus gas and oil, or the aggregate prices of houses bought—and, indeed, nearly one-third as much as total retail spending on food and drink.

The Senate crime committee produced the whopping gambling figure in a report issued yesterday, but it didn't itemize or make clear just how it arrived at its estimate or what it was counting in the total.

"In all," the report said, "the committee figures, conservatively, that $20,000,000,000 changes hands every year in the United States as a result of organized, illegal gambling."

Committee staff sources expressed doubt that the report was "double counting"—that is, counting money once when taken in on bets and counting it again when paid out to winners and taking care of operating expenses.

One staff member suggested that it was comparable to a merchant's sales or turnover—which would mean gross intake from the standpoint of a slot machine operator or horse race bookmaker, or total bet from the public's standpoint.

The subcommittee, headed by Senator Fulbright (D-Ark.) already has reviewed the collapse of Strandlund's lustron corporation in a report which charged the RFC had yielded to influence.

It named White House aide Donald Dawson and E. Merl Young, husband of a White House stenographer, as members of a group which exercised this influence. Young and RFC Director Walter L. Dunham have been Strandlund's targets.

Strandlund is the man who borrowed $37,500,000 from the RFC to undertake at Columbus, Ohio, mass production of prefabricated houses.

He put up only $1,000 of his own cash, but says he also sank a fortune of $1,250,000 into patent rights which were pledged as security on the loan.

Lustron went bankrupt a year ago after the RFC foreclosed on the mortgage and seized his huge Columbus plant. Strandlund charged the firm had met "deliberate destruction" at hands of Dunham and others who, he declared, had tried unsuccessfully to wrest control from his hands.

He said his alternative was to yield control and accept payment of one cent a share for his stock.

SANTA MONICA, Calif. — (P) — English Actress Gracie Fields is planning to sell her home near and move to the island of Capri.

Drifts Block Roads And Close Schools In Delta County

Strong southeast winds whipped a nine-inch average snowfall into drifts four and five feet deep last night, blocking side roads and closing many schools in Delta county.

Highway traffic moved slowly during the late-winter blizzard and only one accident was reported.

State police of the Gladstone post reported automobiles driven by John W. Shahan, 65, of 330 South 16th street, Escanaba, and Reino Ojala, 30, Stonington, were badly damaged in a head-on collision during the snowstorm 9:15 o'clock last night. The accident occurred on U-2 near Esign.

Flight Is Canceled
Shanahan sustained lacerations of the nose and lip bruises. Ojala was unhurt.

Escanaba airport today was the only one open in the Upper Peninsula and drifts at Houghton airport were three feet deep, according to Fred Sensiba, city airport manager.

Wisconsin Central Airlines inaugural flight of DC-3 planes to the Upper Peninsula, scheduled to arrive at noon today, has been postponed because of the storm. It had been proposed to fly from here to Houghton, where special ceremonies were scheduled for this afternoon.

County Roads Plugged
All trunkline highways in the Upper Peninsula were open to traffic today, the state highway department reported. Roads were generally slippery.

The west end of the U. P. had snowfall ranging up to 12 inches, and in the eastern and central section it varied from three inches in Alger and Chippewa to nine inches in Delta.

Drifts four and five feet deep plugged county roads in open country in Delta, according to

Harmless Boy, 18, Blasts Three With Gun In Palm Beach

PALM BEACH, Fla. — (P) — A husky 18-year-old boy, described by his father as a "harmless mental case," critically wounded his 80-year-old grandmother, blasted his father and a policeman with a shotgun last night and threw this wealthy winter resort into near-panic before his capture.

The crazed youth, Hugh Berry, also tried to shoot his mother, but a patrolman shoved the woman into a police car and sped away as buckshot pock-marked the rear of the vehicle.

Neighbors Hear Shots
He was captured about a mile from the Berry's Jamaica Lane home, in the northern end of this island community.

Mrs. Hugh McClung, the youth's grandmother, was shot in the right arm, chest and abdomen. Attaches at Good Samaritan hospital described her condition as "very critical."

The father, Thomas H. Berry, 56, suffered a blast in the face, left arm and chest. His condition was listed as "fair."

The grandmother and the father were shot at home. Neighbors hearing the shots called police, and young Berry fled, shooting as they arrived.

Bloodhounds Aid Hunt
Motorcycle patrolman Tyler Watts, 49, chased the youth onto the Palm Beach Country club golf course where young Berry turned and fired, striking Watts in the left leg. His condition was not serious.

The shooting touched off the biggest manhunt in the island city's history. More than 50 heavily armed police and sheriff's deputies joined the search, augmented by bloodhounds and guided by fire department search lights.

The youth was captured as he strode along a road, the shotgun dangling at his side.

Texas Co-Pilot Falls 4000 Feet

Flier Plunges From Unlatched Door

DALLAS — (P) — A youthful air force veteran, checking an unlatched door on a Pioneer Airlines plane, plunged 4,000 feet from the craft early today over the little town of Exell, Tex.

Around him were 20 sleeping United States airmen, unaware that the flier had fallen. Spokenmen at Pioneer headquarters here said there could be no presumption other than that he died.

The victim was Joseph Henry Dowd, 27, of Dallas. He was co-pilot of the chartered plane. It was en route from Lackland air force base, San Antonio, to Lowry Field, Denver.

Jack Kemp, Pioneer public information director, quoted this story as told by the plane's captain, Cleo C. Edds of Dallas:

"The plane taking off from Amarillo, was airborne when Edds noted a warning light on his instrument panel showing an unlatched rear door. He sent Dowd to the rear to investigate.

When Dowd failed to return, the pilot awoke one of the airmen. The serviceman could not find Dowd.

The plane then had been in the air about 15 minutes and was at 4,000 feet. The pilot estimated the plane was over Exell, about 40 miles northwest of Amarillo.

Russia Gives O. K. To Big 4 Meeting In Paris March 5

MOSCOW — (P) — Russia agreed today to a western proposal for a Big Four deputy foreign ministers' meeting in Paris March 5 to lay the groundwork for a Big Four foreign ministers meeting.

The Russian acceptance was handed to the ambassadors of the United States, Britain and France. They were called to the Soviet foreign office to receive a reply to parallel notes their governments sent Feb. 19 suggesting such a meeting.

The deputies will try to map out an agenda for a proposed Big Four council of foreign ministers meeting to discuss problems causing world tension.

The idea of a new Big Four meeting was suggested by Russia in a note on Nov. 3, 1950. The Soviet Union wanted the ministers to discuss German questions alone, particularly the issue of German rearmament. But the Western Powers rejected this proposal, insisting that any such meeting should deal with other world problems as well.

Sen. Taft Nominated As Next President

BALTIMORE — (P) — Senator Taft (R-Ohio) was unofficially nominated for president last night and Governor McKelvin of Maryland suggested it be made official.

The Republican governor, taking note of dinner guests' greetings to the senator as the "next president of the United States," recalled former presidents Andrew Jackson, Abraham Lincoln and Woodrow Wilson were nominated here.

"And they were all elected," the governor reminded Taft. "Have the next National Republican convention here and we'll nominate you, too."

Wage And Price Control Effort Runs Into Snag

President Declares Wilson Will Stay

By STERLING F. GREEN
WASHINGTON — (P) — President Truman said today Charles E. Wilson will remain as defense mobilization director despite labor's walkout from the program.

Mr. Truman told a news conference he has full confidence in Wilson.

Although labor's refusal to have any further part in the present setup threatened to imperil the whole defense program, Mr. Truman indicated he felt no sense of crisis.

Goes On Vacation

He told reporters he saw nothing in the current situation to prevent his flying to Key West, Fla., tomorrow for a vacation. He plans to stay about three weeks.

The top men of labor decided last night to boycott the program in what amounted to a "no confidence" vote in the way it is being run.

The United labor policy committee—made up of representatives from the big labor union organizations—protested what it termed "legalized robbery" in price control, "unjust" wage ceilings and "big business domination" of the defense drive.

Unrest Spreads
Their break from the mobilization agencies, as they are now constituted, carried with it the ominous threat of widespread industrial unrest.

Two congressional investigations loomed. Senator Bricker (R-Ohio) said he will ask the Senate-House "watchdog" committee on mobilization to start an inquiry. Senator Humphrey (D-Minn.) promised quick action by his labor subcommittee.

Made a Mistake
Bricker said the labor chiefs had made a "fatal mistake." He told a reporter:

"Public opinion is certain to be against fellows who walk out just because they can't get everything they demand."

The instructions to union officials.

The article cites Michigan State as a typical U. S. land grant college. It includes pictures and stories of two typical students to illustrate that education is available to all in the United States.

March Ushered In With Storm

Blizzard Climax To Freakish February

Not just one March lion but a whole blizzard-full of them blew into the Upper Peninsula last night.

The storm started a few hours before the close of February, in itself a freakish month for weather that ranged from cold to warm, rain, sleet and snow.

Average temperature for February here was 18.9 degrees, 3.5 degrees above the normal for the month, the U. S. Weather Bureau office in Escanaba reported today. The highest temperature during the past month was 39 degrees above on Feb. 26 and the lowest was 17 below on Feb. 2.

Generally the weather in February was rather cold and dry in the first half of the month, milder and wet during the last half.

There were nine days in first part of the month in which the minimum was below zero; 12 days in which the maximum temperature was above 32 degrees; and for three consecutive days (17-18-19) the minimum did not go below freezing.

While the temperature average for the month was above normal, the first 15 days averaged below normal, only to be overcome by the warmer weather for the last half of the month when rain fell, much of the winter's accumulated snow melted, and there were signs of an early spring.

The amount of snow on the ground, 18 inches at the opening of February, melted down to five inches—and then popped up to the present 15 inches with last night's blizzard.

Cache of Whisky Found On Farm Near Green Bay

GREEN BAY, Wis.—(P)—A huge cache of whisky, found stored in a farmer's granary near here, is believed to be part of a shipment stolen in Chicago last week, Police Chief H. J. Bero said Tuesday.

Bero said the farmer who owned the building related that "some strangers" came to his door last Thursday and asked to store "part of their truck cargo," explaining the vehicle had a broken spring and they wanted to lighten the load. Officers found 364 cases in the building.

The chief said no arrests had been made.

The whisky, with Wisconsin tax stamps affixed, is believed to be part of a 550-case shipment aboard a Glendening Motor Ways, Inc., truck stolen from its Chicago terminal. The truck was found last Thursday about 10 miles north-east of here. Missing were 450 cases of liquor.

War Goods Plants To Get Tips About Sabotage And Spies

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON—(P)—A government security group expects to have ready by June a detailed account of what each of the nation's several thousand war goods plants is doing or should do to guard against saboteurs and spies.

The project was started by the munitions board last fall after defense and other government officials had done a lot of private and public worrying over protection, or lack of it, for plants which have important or secret military contracts.

Small Staff, Big Job

It has taken time. But, officials who are directing the program contend, it is a big and complex job for a small staff. One of the major efforts of the board's plant security experts is to bring out of an existing welter of regulations by the various military services an overall set of rules and to coordinate the work of several government agencies interested in this phase of internal security.

The munitions board has completed a listing of all so-called "sensitive plants," factories which are working on secret or other classified projects.

The Internal Security Act passed by Congress last September permits the defense department to publish the names of these plants, but there seems little likelihood that will be done, Defense

Living Cost Report Delay Costs Union Workers $2,000,000

DETROIT — (P)—The government's modified wage policy with respect to cost-of-living increases got a pat on the back from General Motors' C. E. Wilson today.

Wilson said the modification permitting such increases up to July 1 was both fair to workers and "in the best interests of the nation."

GM's chief expressed himself in a telegram to ESA Administrator Eric A. Johnston.

Statistics Revised

At the same time it was indicated that the nation's workers employed under cost-of-living wage contracts may miss out on an estimated $2,000,000 wage jump because of the government's delayed report on living costs statistics.

The estimate is unofficial. It derives from interpretations by the CIO United Auto Workers union. About 1,000,000 workers, including GM's, stand to gain four to five cents an hour in additional pay on the basis of the forthcoming BLS (Bureau of Labor Statistics) report.

Ordinarily, the BLS current report on the status of living costs would have come out late in February. Revisions being made in the form of computation is delaying it.

Wages go up or down one penny for each 1.14 points change in the cost of living.

Most of the auto company contracts, including GM and Ford, provide for such pay adjustments "at the beginning of the first pay period after receipt of the index."

Escalator Pay Praised

If the BLS index is not forthcoming until next week, pay raises would not take effect until the succeeding week. As examples, GM's pay period starts Sunday and Ford's on Sunday night and Monday morning.

At GM a spokesman said a pay raise would not apply until March 11 if the BLS index does not appear until next week.

Wilson extolled what he called the "merits" of escalator wage clauses in his telegram to Johnston. He said if the same principles were applied elsewhere in industry, it would be a "wonderful thing for the nation in these critical times" as a stabilizing factor.

Discuss Farm, Home Problem

Annual FHA Meeting Held In Escanaba

Special stress was placed on grass farming at the annual farm ownership meeting of Delta county held yesterday, at Escanaba.

This announcement was made by Felix V. Juska, county supervisor of the Farmers' Home Administration, who was in charge of the half-day affair. Participating in the educational discussion were approximately 24 persons, representing ten families in this county buying or improving their farms through Farmers' Home Administration supervised credit.

Helping in the discussion on farm and home problems of FHA families were the three FHA committeemen for Delta county: Andrew Sundberg of Ensign, Hilding Olson of Ark River, and Fred Storch of Rapid River. Carl Hanson, Menominee county farmer and a State FHA committeeman of the FHA, commented on the value of good quality hay in dairy production.

A special feature of the program was a flannel-graph discussion on home produced foods in family nutrition, given by Mrs. Eunice Pardee, home management specialist of the Farmers'

Lee Ruwitch Is Leader in TV Manages Station In Miami, Fla.

Lee Ruwitch, former Norway resident and son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ruwitch, of Norway, is making a name for himself in the field of television, according to an account appearing in the New York Radio and Television Daily.

Ruwitch, a graduate of Norway high school, where he was an honor student, resided on the west coast following his graduation from the University of Minnesota. He is a brother of George Ruwitch, assistant principal at the Escanaba high school, and of Dr. Joseph Ruwitch, a veterinarian with offices in Escanaba.

Following is the account: "Today's TV Personality: Lee Ruwitch, vice-president and general manager of WTVJ, Miami, was born in Escanaba. He has been associated with the station since August, 1948, when the WTVJ was still in the construction stage.

"At the time, Lee was rounding out his second year as executive assistant to Col. Mitchell Wolfson, co-founder of the station.

"Following his graduation from the University of Minnesota, Lee was associated with Joseph Ruwitch and Sons Department store, in Norway.

"During the war he served three-and-one-half years in the Navy, mostly in the South Pacific, emerging as a lieutenant.

"During the past year Lee has traveled thousands of miles visiting other TV operations to secure first hand information and to study personnel and operating methods at both large and small outlets.

"As a result WTVJ has grown in stature through the years. Lee was named general manager of the station in 1949, and in January, 1950, was elevated to vice-president while continuing to perform his duties as general manager. His main nonoccupational hobby is getting to the beach to keep his Florida tan."

Dispute Fails To Prohibit Trade

JAMMU, Kashmir — (P) — While all is quite on the 800-mile-long Pakistan ceasefire line in Kashmir, people on both sides have organized an "underground" mail service, linking the Indian and Pakistani-held parts of the disputed state. Simultaneously, barter trade across the cease-fire line is going on, with agents from the Pakistani side exchanging wheat, rock salt, snuff and maize for Indian cloth and rice. Police have been making systematic efforts to check this "illicit traffic" in the mountain terrain.

Crab Parasites Studied In West

LOS ANGELES—(P) — Colonies of single-cell parasites which attach themselves to crabs ordinarily are not considered harmful, but Dr. Gordon H. Ball, zoologist at the University of California declares that his researches show the tiny life units produce damaging effects.

When they gather around the small ducts in the crab's body, the parasites completely close the duct opening and destroy certain cells, Dr. Ball states. He added that the parasites are harmless to humans should the affected crabs be eaten.

An astronomical guide called "The Ephemeris" is published by the U. S. Bureau of Land Management, whose surveys use it in determining boundaries.

South Shore Ry. All Dieselized

Two Locomotives Are Delivered

The Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic Railroad company became one of the few Class I carriers with totally dieselized motive power upon its receipt today of two 1600 HP diesel-electric locomotives manufactured by the Baldwin-Lima-Hamilton corporation of Eddystone, Pa.

The locomotives were received by the company at Superior, Wis., and immediately put into service at that point. The diesel-electric units received today complete the program of the South Shore to modernize its equipment which was commenced in 1945.

Henry S. Mitchell, the road's president, stated that the complete dieselization of the South Shore will enable it to offer faster and better service on transcontinental business in which it participates and will expedite service to shippers on its line. Mr. Mitchell also pointed out that the dieselization of the South Shore is particularly important at this time because it will enable the road to speed up the all-rail shipments of iron ore now being moved over the South Shore from Minnesota mines to eastern steel mills.

On May 1 work will begin to modernize the company's roundhouse at Marquette, Michigan, at an estimated cost of $260,000.

Cheese cloth dipped and wrung out in a weak solution of vinegar is an aid in keeping cheese fresh in the refrigerator. Wrap the cheese in several damp layers.

Other business to come before the council is as follows:

Hearing of objections to water main improvement on Ninth avenue north.

Consideration of a request of the C&NW railway to install an automatic crossing protection at Stephenson avenue.

Consideration of a new yacht harbor ordinance.

Appointments to the zoning board of appeals.

Hearing of a request of Skerbeck carnival for permission to show here this year.

Consideration of Planning commission recommendations for amending ordinances 65 and 123. Ordinance 65 concerns zoning and 123 the breaking of curb.

Consideration of bids on removal of buildings from airport property. Bids were opened yesterday afternoon.

Consideration of a resolution objecting to proposed federal income tax on municipal bonds. If this tax were levied on municipal bonds, costs of the water and gas plants here would be increased by one to one and one-fourth per cent.

Many of its members have won recognition in other fields of music and many of them now are members of the Munising City Band which also is directed by Mr. Howlett.

Mr. Howlett came to Munising from Boyne City. He is a graduate of the University of Iowa and took post graduate work at Western Michigan College of Education in Kalamazoo and at Wayne university in Detroit. ### Electric Problem Is Latest Of Many Problems Confronting City

ONLY the dark days of the depression produced more problems for Escanaba councilmen than the problems with which the present councilmen are confronted.

For years Escanaba's utilities departments moved along at an even keel. The problems confronting the various utilities were comparatively minor. Then the bottom dropped out. The present council has wrestled first with the steam plant problem, then the water problem, later the gas problem — and now it is faced with the biggest problem of all, the electric problem.

The electric utility has long been a major source of revenue for the City of Escanaba. In recent years its earnings paid an extremely large proportion of the city's entire operating costs. Earnings are down now because of higher costs and a reduction in the revenues per kwh consumed. That poses a distinct problem in itself for the city council.

But an even more formidable problem involving the electric utility is the securing of an adequate, reliable source of supply for future years. The city's present contract with the Upper Michigan Power and Light company has eight more years to run, it is true, and presumably the council could duck the problem for some time to come, if it chose to do so. That would serve, however, to make solution of the problem even more difficult in later years. Also, it would be unfair to the Escanaba Paper company, which, like the power company, is a subsidiary of the Mead Corporation. The paper company's power needs are expanding, too.

The power company has expressed a desire to have the city produce a portion if not all of its own electric requirements. Escanaba's tremendous increase in electric usage has cut deeply into the power company's productive capacity and the trend is continuing. In 1945 the average residential consumption here was 65 kwh per month. Today it is 160 kwh per month.

The Escanaba councilmen will spend many, many hours studying the electric problem before any decision is reached for a solution.

Method In Chinese Reds' Madness

IF the Chinese Reds begin to make a noise that sounds like a genuine peace offer, we need not glibly assume it's because they suddenly have developed charitable tendencies. They're about as kindly as a crocodile on a starvation diet.

Probably much closer to the point is the fact that the Chinese have been taking a drubbing lately in Korea, especially in the air. Gen. Lawton Collins, chief of staff of the army, made this clear recently to the tough-minded senators on the Senate Preparedness committee.

Collins told the senators that field officers believe the Reds may have shot their bolt in Korea for quite a while and are currently unable to mount a major drive. He added that Red losses have been severe enough to hurt morale.

Said the general: "They've taken a terrific battering. They have been cut up like they've never been cut up before, and it's keeping up every day."

Not the soft talk of conciliation but the rough talk of bombs and guns may persuade the Chinese that enough is enough.

Wage Order Has Many Inequities

THE wage ceiling formula adopted by Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnston may serve as a stopgap to check inflationary pressures but it is apparent that the formula cannot endure for long.

Under the formula wage increases to 10% beyond the level of Jan. 15, 1950 are permitted. The effect of the formula is to freeze wage inequities. Many wage earners who received substantial pay boosts in the early months of 1950 have likewise received another pay boost later in that year or in the early months of this year, because of higher living costs that developed from the Korean war. But many thousands of other workers have not been so fortunate and they are now caught by the wage freeze order.

Some industries where pay scales have been comparatively low will not be able to hold their workers unless the wage order is modified to permit competitive rates.

Cost of living adjustments are not now permitted in the wage order but Johnston has indicated that authority for such adjustments will ultimately be granted. This will eliminate at least one of the more obvious inequities in the order as it now stands.

PLENTY OF CANDIDATES (Detroit News)

The Harvard Lampoon has bestowed its newly created movie trophy, the "Roscoe," on Elizabeth Taylor "for so gallantly persisting in her career despite a total disability to act."

We'll take no side on this decision. But if the Lampoon's editors should ever broaden the field and include the political theater, we'll be ready to offer some entries who should at least be good for second money.

Q—What species of animal was the quagga?

A—The quagga, native of Africa, is a member of the horse family, down near the zebra end of the line. The quagga's front half is striped like a zebra, while its rear half of a solid gray with no stripes. The last known quagga died in 1900.

Can't Write Off Moral Wrong In Cage 'Fix'

IN trying to appraise the recent basketball scandals in New York, many sports writers, editorialists and others have troubled to point out that much of the blame must be borne by educators and parents who were not careful enough about the moral atmosphere in which college youngsters develop.

But in most cases this was not an effort to absolve the bribe-taking youths from their own blame in the situation.

At the College of the City of New York, where three lads took bribes to throw games or modify game scores, the student body appears to have been grossly misled in its understanding of the moral issues involved.

These students, through their campus newspaper and by other means, have suggested that the accused athletes be wholly forgiven and reinstated to their former college position. The attitude seems to be that the gamblers are at fault, but not the boys who listened to them. The students may have been influenced by newspapers which stressed that some of the players are "underprivileged" and sought to scatter responsibility over half a dozen places without fixing any on the boys.

Obviously this kind of thinking leaves out a major point. You can create conditions which have an unhealthy moral tinge and will consequently put great pressure on the corruptible youngster. But in the final test, the boy had to be corruptible to succumb to the temptations.

College boys have been playing football for many decades and no breath of scandal has touched them. They were privileged and underprivileged, playing before big crowds and small. Even in professional baseball, where one would expect more gambling and fixing, only one real scandal — the Chicago Black Sox affair — has ever marred the record.

Similarly, college lads the country over have been playing basketball for long years without any smudge on their honesty. And that goes, too, for boys in the schools around New York City.

The plain truth is only a handful took bribes. So these individuals cannot be freed of some blame for their acts. At root, the scandal was their fault.

The offenders deserve sympathy and compassion from all of us. But they do not deserve to be treated as if they had done nothing wrong. That is the great weakness in the forgiving attitude of the C. C. N. Y. students.

As one writer observed, presumably many students are suspended from C. C. N. Y. every year for a variety of mistakes. Most of these are considerably less serious than accepting bribes. But has the C. C. N. Y. paper proposed that all these students likewise be forgiven and reinstated?

There is no reason in the world why corrupt athletes should get special treatment which is denied to less serious offenders.

To pretend these bribe-takers have done nothing bad would be a grave injustice to them and would serve only to weaken further the moral structure of American society. Every effort must be made to make these lads stronger in character, for their own future welfare. But they must pay the penalty for their mistakes.

Please, Teacher

By Gordon Martin

You can teach a kid his lessons—how to read and do his sums, and you show him how to get along with all his little chums. You can teach him lots of history and social science too, and the way he minds his manners oftentimes is up to you. But for heaven's sake, and also his, two things he should know well—will you teach him please, dear teacher, how to write and how to spell?

Will you somehow guide his grimy fist along the proper lines, so it's possible for other folks to read the name he signs? Will you make him practice long and hard to master well his pen, so his writing won't appear to be the trackings of a hen? Will you make it plain there's value in a hand both clear and bold, and that it will always serve him as he grows from young to old?

Then, dear teacher, try to show him how to spell the proper way, so he'll know when he's supposed to use an "o" and not an "a." He'll be hard enough to handle as he learns the spelling art, but in years to come he'll thank you from the bottom of his heart. So for heaven's sake, and also his, two things he should know well—will you teach him please, dear teacher, how to write and how to spell?

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Drew Pearson, departing for a news survey of gathering European war clouds, left the following instructions for his staff:

To the staff:
I shall be traveling in Europe and countries adjacent to the Iron Curtain for the next two or three weeks. During that time you may have to write an occasional emergency column in case I get too far away from a cable office or the going gets tough.

In writing such columns please bear in mind the following:

Don't hesitate to admit an error. Double and triple check in order to avoid errors, but if you find you are wrong, say so. It is only fair to the man you have wronged, in addition to which the public will respect you for being fair.

If you are sure you are right, however, stick to your guns and if necessary we will battle it out.

Never bear grudges. If a president or a senator calls you a name, don't call one back. Because he is puerile or small is no reason for you to sink to his level. Write facts; don't go in for name-calling. Any scribbler can fill a column with abuse. Epithets can be culled from any dollar dictionary, but it takes good journalism to ferret out graft or the backstage doings of diplomats or the income-tax cheaters—and then make what you say stand up in court.

SMOKE-FILLED ROOMS

Remember that it is part of your job to right some of the newswrongs of the capital. The big newspaper chains can be ruthless, their newsmen in a hurry. It is your job to probe deeper than the handout or the official statement. You are to pick up where the spot-news men, rushing for the telephone or grabbing for the headline, leave off. Frequently the best part of the story is after the spot-news cream has been skimmed.

Remember also that ever since politicians became politicians, the thing the public was not supposed to know has taken place in the private lobbies and the smoke-filled rooms. Yet what is hidden from the public is usually what the public is most entitled to know about, and the job of a good newspaperman to report.

Remember that in our system of government by checks and balances, it is your job to help in the checking. Government is so intricate and detailed today that Congress no longer can do all the checking. Furthermore, congressmen themselves have to be checked. Most congressmen are honest and reasonably conscientious, but it is your job to smoke out the Parnell Thomases, and Andy Mays and the "Doc" Brehms, and report the facts about them—even if it means a tough battle.

FAITH IN GOVERNMENT

However, it is also important to remember that the government is neither all good nor all bad. There are bureaucrats who are woefully inefficient, and bureaucrats who are a credit to mankind. It is your job to discriminate.

Remember also that it's the little fellow who usually gets kicked around. It's the little businessman, the G. I., the guy in the lower-bracket incomes who needs a friend. He has few friends in high places, no big politicians to pull wires, no one to speak for him on interlocking boards of directors. He has only the American public's strong sense of right and wrong to back him—and it's your job to spell out those rights and wrongs to back him—and it's your job to spell out those rights and wrongs so the public can know what cooks.

Remember that though the world moves slowly toward its two great goals—peace and the brotherhood of man—it is your job when possible to help accelerate the pace.

Sometimes it is better not to report a delicate diplomatic negotiation. Sometimes the cause of peace is best served by sacrificing a news story until a difficult diplomatic hurdle is over.

Finally, when you write anything, remember that the fewer words you say it in, the better.

These are the goals of the Washington Merry-Go-Round which I have not lived up to. Perhaps you can.

Drew Pearson.

Take My Word For It . . . Frank Colby Jr.

TIPS ON PUNCTUATION FOR HARASSED STENOS

The questions on punctuation in today's column have been selected from actual letters, principally from office workers.

Q. Is this sentence punctuated correctly: "I am going to John's and Mary's house?"

A. In a series of two or more names indicating joint possession, the apostrophe is placed on the last name only: I am going to John and Mary's house. She works in Jones, Smith and Brown's accounting department. She is the office manager, Mr. Black's secretary.

Note use of the apostrophe with the word Junior: This is my son, John Jones Junior's house. He and his wife, Anna, are the John Jones Juniors. Therefore, this is the John Jones Juniors' house.

In a series of names indicating individual possession, each name takes the apostrophe: Mrs. Allen's and Mrs. White's children. The Army's, the Navy's, and the Marines' chief of staffs.

Q. Does one use the hyphen with the prefixes "self" and "ex" and the adjective "elect"?

A. Yes. Correct: self-defense; self-appointed critic; self-addressed envelope. Correct: ex - governor; ex - president. (Note: Today's usage prefers the forms former governor; former president, with no hyphen.)

Correct: president-elect; vice-president-elect; governor-elect; chairman-elect.

Q. Will you please give the preferred forms of writing Biblical references?

A. At the end of a Biblical quotation, give the reference thus: — Luke iv: 3. (Note the full space after the colon.) In Biblical references not quoted, omit the hyphen: according to Luke iv: 3. . .

Also correct: —Luke 4: 3. According to Luke 4: 3. . .

Which One Will He Drop Next?

Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia Has Aroused Wrath of Russian Reds

By SAUL PETT

AP Newsfeatures Writer
International politics makes strange bedfellows, and nobody in recent years has caused more bed-hopping than a Croatian peasant's son named Josip Broz, otherwise known as Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia.

In 1946, Tito said the "great Soviet Union" was a "sincere friend" and Stalin personally dined and wined him at the Kremlin. Two years later Russia called Yugoslavia an "enemy state" and the two countries exchanged insults.

In 1944, the United States and other allies sent war supplies to Tito and in 1945 we recognized his government. In 1947 we sent Tito an ultimatum for shooting down our planes but in 1949 we lent him $20,000,000 and helped elect his regime to a place on the United Nations Security Council over the furious objections of Russia.

Often Backed Russia
Since then the west seems consistently to have wooed Tito but how much he is willing to reciprocate remains unclear. In the Security Council, Yugoslavia has generally abstained or sided with Russia on cold-war issues.

The years in which Tito and Russia were in love far outnumbered the years in which they differed. After World War I, he spent five years in the Soviet Union, where he picked up thorough training in Communist doctrine and techniques and also a Russian bride.

He went back to Yugoslavia to spread the party gospel, spent six years, after 1928, in prison for Communist activity and, when the Spanish civil war broke out, helped organize fighters against Franco. At the start of World War II, he was general secretary of the Yugoslav Communist party.

When the Germans swept in, Tito went underground to form the Partisans and, following Russian practice, peopled his ranks with political commissars and instructors as well as fighting men.

Moscow Favorite
The Partisans fought the Nazis well and throughout the war Tito was a Moscow favorite.

In 1945 Tito swept into power in Belgrade as premier and Yugoslavia signed a 20-year mutual aid pact with Russia. In the next two years pacts also were signed with Poland, Albania, Bulgaria, Hungary and Romania, and Yugoslavia appeared to have settled down snugly and permanently behind the Iron Curtain.

Nothing, it appeared then, would be likely to budge Tito from his love affair with Moscow — especially after the tension created between Yugoslavia and the west over Trieste, the shooting down of U. S. planes and the imprisonment of Archbishop Alojzije Stepinac, Roman Catholic primate of Yugoslavia, for alleged collaboration with the Nazis.

Thrown Out
But suddenly on June 28, 1948, the Iron Curtain parted and Tito came flying out. The bouncer in this case was the Cominform—the Communist International Information Bureau.

Tito, the Cominform said, was being "hostile" to Russia, pursued a nationalist "deviationist" policy, and "took an entirely wrong policy on the principal questions of foreign policy and internal politics, which means a retreat from Marxism-Leninism."

Russia's satellites fled from any contact with Tito. The same countries which had signed pacts with him only a year or two before were now bitterly denouncing him. Communists everywhere were ordered by Moscow to purge their ranks of Titoism, a word which became as unpalatable to Stalin as Trotskyism once was.

Tito said "We shall fight and we shall fight enduringly" to prevent subjugation by Russia.

All this was delicious news to the West and it lost no time in making the most of the first break in the world front of Communism. Tito suddenly found new friends who helped him to a seat on the Security Council. The United States lent him $20,000,000 and authorized the export of equipment for a steel mill in Yugoslavia. The World Bank, in which the United States was a heavy investor, also lent Tito $2,700,000.

Dear Editor:

Why dampen the spirits of a couple with enough courage to marry in these times of war and strife.

If any noise is to be stopped, start with the taverns where cars and taxis blow their horns any hour of the day or night. The noise a newly married couple makes doesn't last long. They don't mean it as a disturbance. It is just their way of announcing their happiness.

I would much rather hear a horn blowing for a wedding than to hear a horn blow in front of a tavern and I hear those every day and night. Consider the disturbance created in an area where there are six taverns in one block.

Disturbed.

High Cost Of Dental Care

Dear Editor:

How do dentists get that way? Recently, a mother took five children to a dentist to have their teeth examined. It took him about fifteen minutes to look them over and he charged her five dollars. Later, she paid him over a hundred dollars for work that he had done on them and he didn't refund the five dollars.

Ask a heating expert for an estimation, and he'll travel miles and spend hours to give you a free estimation of costs. Any plumber or electrician will do the same thing, but Mr. dentist has to have his dollar every time he has a "look see."

As far as dentists and doctors are concerned, the Government could stop making small change. They don't seem to have much use for anything smaller than a dollar. But let someone suggest a Government program of medicine and they yell "stop thief." They like to stress the advantages of the present system. Of course, the present system is good, for those who can afford to pay. That doesn't include all of us. According to Government surveys, plenty of people are not getting the dental or medical care that they need.

A person has to be unnormal to get into this kind of business. You have to be slightly demented to make a fool of yourself in front of a whole crew of people who don't care a bit about what you are doing.—Movie actress Lauren Bacall.

Good Evening . . .

By CLINT DUNATHAN

IN THEORY—This is the second of three columns on the Delta county walleye controversy, one of the word battles of the decade that may bring equally bitter fighting in the Michigan legislature.

Yesterday we sketched the battle background and concluded with a statement by Dr. Ralph Hile of the U. S. Fish & Wildlife Service that fishermen accept present abnormal abundance of walleyes in Bays de Noc as "normal."

His theory, briefly, is as follows:

There was a "phenomenal hatch" of walleyes in the bay in 1943 for reasons unknown. It is this abundant crop of fish that has supplied the bays with the best walleye fishing on record, both for commercial and sports fishermen.

WHY AND HOW—Dr. Hile admits the reason for the big hatch of 1943 is unknown but he is not averse to a little speculation.

"Many hold that the recent great abundance was made possible by the mortality that all but wiped out the population of smelt in the late winter of 1942-43. Certainly the timing is suggestive and the explanation is made even more attractive by the fact that lake herring and whitefish enjoyed similar increases."

So much for theory on walleye abundance. There is a more controversial point yet to be made—that of the harvesting of the "walleye crop," as the fish experts call it.

DOLLARS AND CENTS—There is a fundamental question of economics in the walleye fishing problem that can not be overlooked.

On one side there is the commercial fishing industry, long established, a community asset, providing employment to an estimated 600 persons. On the other is the tourist and resort business, catering to visitors whose primary interest is in hook and line fishing; also a community asset and employer of hundreds of persons.

AWAY THEY GO—If the sports fishermen, many of them visitors from other states, had continued to have good luck the last couple years it is doubtful if the controversy would have developed.

But the hook and line fishing declined as the commercial fishing fleet grew and many commercial rigs moved in from other areas, including Wisconsin. The fishing intensity increased commercially (and by sports fishermen as well) but the men with the nets did much better while the men with the hook and line did not proportionately do as well.

The vaunted walleye fishing grounds did not hold up to reputation and sports fishermen complained to tourist and resort operators.

Public-spirited individuals saw the commercial rigs in Delta waters increasing by leaps and bounds—85 commercial licenses in 1945 to 311 in 1949; large mesh gill nets 8,467 in 1947, to 20,481 in 1950; pond nets from 95 to 241; trap nets from 380 to 682.

DOING SOMETHING—Beginning two years ago the general alarm over the possibility of completely fishing out the walleyes in Green Bay grew to a climax late last year with demands for restrictive legislation to protect the walleye.

The public, including thousands of sports fishermen, were not impressed by arguments opposing restriction, such as the following advanced by Dr. Hile:

"It would be unfortunate indeed if fishing for walleyes were to be handicapped by unnecessary restrictions such as the closure of grounds or even eliminated by placement of the species on the game fish list simply because the public failed to understand the nature of the changes that have been taking place."

The other side of the story was voiced by a representative of the Walleye Protective association:

"It is impossible to believe that commercial fishermen can take millions of pounds of one species of fish such as our walleyes and not do harm. They will disappear here as they have disappeared elsewhere."

(Third and concluding column in this series will appear tomorrow.)

Chase Big Thieves And Let Kids Go - - Ruark

By ROBERT C. RUARK
NEW YORK—The possibility of trial and conviction for these basketball players who took dough to dump games is protected by a statute which makes it a felony to tamper with a sport.

RUARK

Nothing much will come of it, though if the boys do stand trial, that cannot be reversed by an appeal. The outcome of a sport is such a fragile thing, from a legal standpoint, that you might as well accuse a director of tampering with the outcome of a play or a movie.

There is no law against people giving other people money, if the recipients duly record the gift and mention it to the tax people. In the fine appreciation of law an athlete should not be more legally guilty in complicity to lose by gangster bribe than he is liable for winning through the college bribe which subsidizes him. Money is money, and if the college hands it to him under the table, to play, what's wrong with taking some more on the side?"

I claim to be an honest man, and so have no sympathy for the players who got caught on the take. Talk all you want to about temptation and loose morals and the atmosphere of the time, an honest man is honest and does not fall for temptation. Some of us who went to school during the depression did not become Communists, either, although the temptation and the trend was plenty present.

But you will not reform the players or the world by dumping them into jail with hopheads and hoodlums and killers and perverts. You will make criminals, sure, and wreck lives, sure, but you accomplish nothing outside an extra drain on the guy who pays for jails and the depredations of criminals. That's us—the people who don't take bribes, who don't run through traffic lights, and who contribute to the upkeep of the land.

The structure of sport is too flimsy to make a crime of its corruption. We wink and laugh at wrestling. We go for the bagged prize fight. We put up with the subsidization of "amateur" athletes. We let known criminals operate effectively in the boxing business. We love racing, and we let run as an offshoot of underworld, industry. You remember when any jockeys went to jail for pulling a horse on a day the owner said to take it easy?

Of course the basic premise of dishonesty is nakedly evident in the basketball fixes, as in the football fixes, the RFC fixes, the old Black Sox scandal, the Harding administration, the other shakedown deals involving statesmen, businessmen, and athletes. But you have to figure penalties on who got hurt in order to make a crime stand up.

Who gets hurt, for instance, when you fix a sporting event? The people who gamble on it get hurt. Gambling is illegal, per se. Who else gets hurt? School spirit?

The athletes' wives and mothers? Show me damage, apart from spiritual, and maybe you got a case.

I have never known a fighter to go to jail for taking a splash, but have seen many such splashers, and some recently. Nobody was led off to vile dance in the Black Sox mess, although, a known gambler fixed it. The football players who got caught a few years back didn't do any time.

A crime bespeaks an offense against the public weal. Throwing a sporting event merely serves the gambling participants right. It is no invasion of privacy, no breaking and entering, no murder, no rape, no mayhem. It does not steal public funds or tamper with public moneys which is more than you can say of the general who corrupts procurement or people who misrepresent clients for a public borrowing agency like the RFC.

Holy cow, don't bother me with basketball players when we got so much big-league larceny around and about. Call the guilty parties moral lepers if you will, and dismiss 'em with a lecture, but let us concentrate on the big thieves and let the petty larceny kids swim through the net.

Tax On Trucks Debated Again

Senate Struggles Over Road Levies

LANSING — (AP) — Backers of higher highway taxes struggled to hold their lines intact today as debate over the "good roads" program went into its 11th day in the Senate.

With a two-cents-a-gallon gasoline tax increase apparently headed for passage when the gate is lifted, the debate focused on higher license taxes for heavy commercial and farm vehicles.

Sponsors of the legislation were doubtful whether they could get a final vote this week. The debate continues again today with fears predominant the delays might allow votes to shift.

Senator George N. Higgins (R-Fond du Lac) yesterday backed down on his promise to produce a plan for taxing out-of-state trucks who use Michigan highways free under reciprocal agreements with other states.

He said careful study proved it could not be done without hurting Michigan truckers.

Therefore, Higgins tried again to trim the proposed truck tax increase.

Higgins said his amendments would cut the proposed $5,400,000 truck boost by 25 per cent. Senator Joseph P. Cioffi (R-Wakefield) argued the Higgins bill would cut the total $3,200,000.

No Improvement Seen In Sen. Vandenberg, Stricken By Relapse

GRAND RAPIDS — (AP) — Senator Vandenberg has shown "no improvement" since a relapse in his convalescence earlier this week, his personal physician reported today.

Michigan's senior Republican Senator has been recuperating at his home here from a series of operations dating back to October, 1949.

Arthur H. Vandenberg, jr., the senator's son who is here from Brazil on a business trip, said he was postponing his return pending further developments in his father's condition.

One Man Suffocated In Highland Park Lincoln Hotel Fire

DETROIT — (AP) — A 36-year-old man was suffocated and 29 other residents driven into the street by a fire in the Lincoln hotel in Highland Park today.

Police identified the dead man as Joe Tarwaski, who had lived at the hotel since December.

The blaze was discovered in a laundry chute at 420 a. m., but authorities were unable to determine immediately what caused it. Damage was limited to the chute, basement laundry room and northeast wall of the building.

Briefly Told

Immunization — The regular weekly immunization clinic will be held at the Delta county health center, Webster annex, from 1 to 3 p. m., Friday.

Buenos Aires Police Lock Up Newspaper, Scene Of Strike Riot

BUENOS AIRES — A police investigation shattered the printing plant of the leading Anti-Peron newspaper La Prensa today and halted indefinitely efforts to resume publication of the strike-bound critic of the government.

As non-strikers made plans to try and get out Friday's issue of the paper, federal Judge Roberto Durrieu last night again thwarted their efforts, this time ordering the building cleared until he completes an investigation of Tuesday's riot in which one non-striker was killed and 15 others injured.

Durrieu Tuesday night had ordered the arrest of more than 300 printers who reached the building after a 45-minute battle with gangs of thugs and gunmen. They were released later, but a correspondent and a photographer for Time and Life still were in custody last night, charged with "inciting disturbances," a U. S. embassy spokesman said.

Rep. Potter Requests $2,500,000 To Wage Fight On Lampreys

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Rep. Potter (R-Mich.) is asking for $2,500,000 in federal money to intensify the battle against predatory lamprey eels in the Great Lakes.

Potter told a reporter today he was confident the House Merchant Marine and Fisheries committee would approve the sum. The congressman said the Fish and Wildlife Service believes the amount he is asking will be sufficient to knock out the lampreys, which have played havoc with commercial fishing in the Great Lakes in recent years.

Potter introduced his bill yesterday to authorize appropriations of $500,000 a year for five years. The present authorization obtained by Potter two years ago is about $265,000 a year. It has no termination date.

Speeding Train Rams Auto; Driver Escapes

DETROIT — (AP) — The Pennsylvania railroad's Red arrow whamobile last night, flinging the car 100 feet down the tracks.

The train was stalled 20 minutes while workmen untangled the wreckage.

Horvath got only a few cuts and cracked ribs.

Deputies sheriff said the fact that the train hit his car squarely in the rear probably saved his life.

Horvath's car spun onto the tracks in front of the speeding passenger train after colliding near a crossing with a furniture truck.

Automobile Pricing Order Promised By OPS This Afternoon

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The government today was reported ready to allow a 3½ percent increase in the prices of new automobiles.

The order was expected to be issued by the Office of Price Stabilization late today.

Earlier, an OPS spokesman said the agency expects to issue an auto price order today and that it would be "more than just an extension of the present order."

The spokesman would not elaborate on this.

But it was learned from other officials who are thoroughly familiar with the forthcoming order that a 3½ percent increase had been approved.

Chicago Prices

CHICAGO — (AP) — Butter, steady to firm; receipts 5,721; wholesale selling prices unchanged except on 32 score AA 14 cent a pound higher; 93 AA, 68; 92 A, 67.5; 90 B, 66.5; 89 C, 64.75; cars: 90 B, 66.5; 89 C, 62.65.

CHICAGO EGGS — Eggs, firm; receipts 12,151; wholesale selling prices unchanged except on U. S. extras a cent a dozen higher; U. S. extras, 47.5; U. S. mediums, 44 to 45.5; U. S. standards, 45; current receipts, 43; dirties, 42; checks, 40.5.

CHICAGO POTATOES — (AP) — (USDA) — Potatoes: Arrivals 62, on track 220; total U. S. shipments 892; supplies moderate; demand slow; market dull to slightly weaker; Idaho russets, $3.05 to $3.20. New Stock: Florida 50-lb. sacks triumphs, $2.35 to $2.60.

CHICAGO GRAIN — A fair amount of selling entered the grain pits on the Board of Trade today and prices slumped for mostly small lots.

The selling was pretty general around the room, although at times the new-crop soybean contracts exhibited a little firmness. This was not surprising in view of the sharp drop in these contracts in recent days, climaxed by yesterday's 10 cent break. Wheat near the end of the first hour was ½ to 1½ cents lower, March $2.43¾, corn was ½ to 1½ lower, March $1.17, and oats were ½ to 1½ higher, March $1.60. Soybeans were unchanged to 2½ cents lower, March $3.53, and June $3.53, and to 12 cents lower, March $3.53.

Wage And Price Plans Snagged By Union Boycotting

ers to "resign immediately" from defense posts bore the unanimous endorsement of some of labor's biggest names. These included AFL President William Green, CIO President Philip Murray, and 12 other policy committee members representing most of the country's 15,000,000 organized wage earners. Green and Murray themselves are quitting several government advisory jobs.

A chief target of their attack was Charles E. Wilson, director of the Office of Defense Mobilization, accused of running a big-business show and excluding labor.

Ching Under Fire

Going further, the committee evidently sought the scalps of Cyrus S. Ching, chief of the nine-member wage stabilization board, and of both the other public members, John Dunlop and Clark Kerr.

Until Mr. Truman entirely "re-constitutes" the board, the unionists decreed, labor's three representatives will boycott the board which formulated the disputed 10 per cent wage-increase formula by the vote of the public and industry members. That percentage would be allowed above Jan. 15, 1950 levels.

The committee left only one small apparent loophole. It said labor stands ready to meet with "responsible representatives" of the government to seek a remedy. There was no immediate official response.

The boycott of the wage board raised an indirect threat—strikes in industry, perhaps not far ahead. While the board is dismembered and non-functioning, it cannot solve the immediate problem of "escalator" wage increase clauses falling due in the auto, electric and other major industries.

Can't Collect Raise — Chrysler and Ford employees have cost-of-living increases due as of today. But if the next price index—already overdue in appearance—shows these workers entitled to more than a five-cent hourly increase under their sliding-scale contracts, they could not collect under the present wage formula.

The same is true for thousands of workers at International Harvester and in many other plants in coming weeks and months. If the wage ceiling isn't opened up, officials fear trouble.

Eric Johnston, Economic Stabilization Administrator, recommended that the wage board authorize such increases up to June 30.

The policy committee said his and Johnston's other proposed amendments are "inadequate." Some members called on Johnston himself to order revisions—better ones, Johnston said, tight and, mum.

Denunciation of the government's price policy was threaded through the committee's five-page statement. It charged that the retail mark-up regulation issued Tuesday "legalizes every illegal price mark-up since the Jan. 25 freeze order."

"At a time when fixed formulas are being applied to wages, business is being allowed to write its own ceiling prices. Nothing else in the economy has been frozen," the statement went on.

Declaring they realized "the gravity" of their decision, the labor chiefs explained they had protested to Mr. Truman, Wilson and others without result. They said:

"We have come to the decision that in no other way can we effectively impress upon the American people the great wrongs being perpetrated against them."

Late yesterday the Office of Price Stabilization made two new moves in the direction of more rigorous price control. The OPS announced:

First, a country-wide investigation of meat prices, beginning promptly, to see whether packers and wholesalers are obeying the ceilings.

Second, a decision to place ceilings on livestock, which so far are not controlled. It "won't be many days," an OPS spokesman said, before the live animals will be subject to control.

Picking another bone with Wilson, the labor group renewed its demand that he yield control over manpower to Secretary of Labor Tobin.

"So long as the control of manpower rests in the ODM, no American wage or salary earner may feel safe that the big business clique in control of that agency may not suddenly seek to achieve a compulsory draft of the nation's workers," the statement charged.

Grand Rapids Puck Team Won't Strike

GRAND RAPIDS — (AP) — The Grand Rapids Puckets were reported today to have been assured they'll get a bonus for taking part in the International Amateur hockey league playoffs.

The league leading Puckets were dissatisfied over some features of their contracts that provide them pay even though they are classed as "amateurs." This had given rise to reports they would strike during the playoffs scheduled to open in Grand Rapids and Toledo next Wednesday.

But all difficulties were ironed out at a meeting of the players with Phil Simon, president of the Puckets.

Three South Haven Buildings Burned

SOUTH HAVEN, Mich. — (AP) — Fire destroyed three stores in the heart of South Haven today, causing an estimated $250,000 damage and threatening for two hours to spread to other buildings.

All the stores were occupied by the Mid-City Supply Co., Inc., owned by Sidney and Leo Goldberg.

The fire was discovered at 7:30 a. m. by an employee reporting for work. The cause was not determined, but the blaze started in a one-story floor covering division, where exploding wax spread it rapidly.

For more than two hours the fire raged out of control as an estimated half of this city's population of 6,000 flocked to the scene.

Clearing and Colder

School buses could not get through in many sections this morning and schools were closed at Rapid River, Perkins, Cornell, Trenary, and in Wells township.

The U. S. Weather Bureau office in Escanaba reported the storm began here about 8 o'clock last night, with the strong wind shifting during the night from the southeast to the northwest. Center of the storm, moving eastward, struck Delta county.

The forecast for tonight and tomorrow is clearing and colder, with a low between zero and 10 degrees above early tomorrow morning. The general picture shows no extended period of cold weather in prospect.

House Seeks Repeal Of Bill To Censor State School Books

LANSING — (AP) — The House moved rapidly yesterday in an attempt to pull the props from under a state supreme court suit to force the state superintendent of public instruction to censor school books.

There was a report that the court would rule in the suit today. An attempt to get quick Senate approval of the House move bogged down.

The House passed a bill unanimously which would repeal a 1927 law requiring the superintendent to publish an annual price list of school books sold in the state.

The sons of the American revolution brought suit in the high court to force the superintendent to obey the law and to use it as a means of censoring school books.

Georgia GI Coming Home; Can't Don Wool

COLUMBUS, Ga. — (AP) — A Columbus soldier has been shipped home from Korea, not a victim of bullets or frostbite—he just can't wear the army's wool uniform.

Sgt. Glenn E. Garrison has what doctors say is an allergy to wool. "Of course you had to wear wool in Korea," Garrison said at his home yesterday. "And I'd break out and swell up."

A veteran of the Hamhung evacuation, he has been in 11 different army hospitals where doctors explored his allergy.

Oddly enough, Sgt. Garrison served three and a half years in the army in World War II. But most of this was in the South Pacific where only cotton was worn.

He expects a discharge soon.

Michigan's Fiscal Policies Lashed In Hoover Report

hamstrung the legislature so that it can appropriate only 36 per cent of the money coming into the general fund. "Heroic measures" are needed, he said, to correct these evils.

But, the report said, "today the Michigan legislature persists in attacking the revenue and expenditure problems and needs of state government in the same amateurish way that it did before there was a budget and before the state government had grown to anything like its present size and complexity."

He noted that four legislative committees must pass on the governor's budget and that the committees still act independently of each other and perform the same "time-consuming routines."

Treasurer Important Job — The report said the legislature's appropriation decisions are based on information which is "exceedingly sketchy and often rests on gossip rather than facts. It is derived largely from hurried committee and subcommittee hearings and investigations, often conducted by members with little or no legislative experience; it is gained through committee junkies to the various state institutions and agencies, a legislative practice already outgrown and discredited in most other states."

The obvious intent of the legislature, Buck said, is to hamstring the governor and department of administration. He added "it is difficult for an outsider to understand why legislative dislike of the governor, however violent, should take this form of expression to the apparent detriment of responsible state administration."

Buck recommended that the state treasurer be appointed by the governor, saying election of that official could produce a map not fitted for the custody and investment of millions of dollars.

Under the present system, "though the citizens of Michigan may not realize it," he said, "the state treasurer will for all practical purposes be governor in matters of fiscal and budgetary determinations. He will of course escape the responsibility that attaches to the governorship and he will be free to make whatever political capital he can out of the situation."

The report recommended the auditor general be abolished, his accounting duties going to the department of administration and his auditing duties being handled by a new official, a legislative auditor.

Civil Defense Law Drafted To Increase Powers Of Governor

LANSING — (AP) — A model civil defense law giving the governor extraordinary powers in case of public danger was introduced in the Senate yesterday by Senator Perry W. Greene (R-Grand Rapids).

Greene said the bill was a model drafted by the council of state governments.

The measure would give the governor ordinary powers to order air raid drills, blackouts, mobilization of civil defense personnel, shut off of gas, water, electricity, regulate the conduct of civilian life and movement of pedestrians and vehicles, ban public meetings and order the evacuation and reception of civilian populace.

Gov. Williams Seeks Federal Aid To Sell Michigan Bean Crop

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Gov. G. Mennen Williams called on Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan yesterday to ask for help in disposing of Michigan's 1950 crop of beans.

Williams said he was given encouragement that a plan would be developed whereby the Commodity Credit Corporation would buy a part of the crop. Because of a surplus most of the 1950 crop still is in storage on Michigan farms.

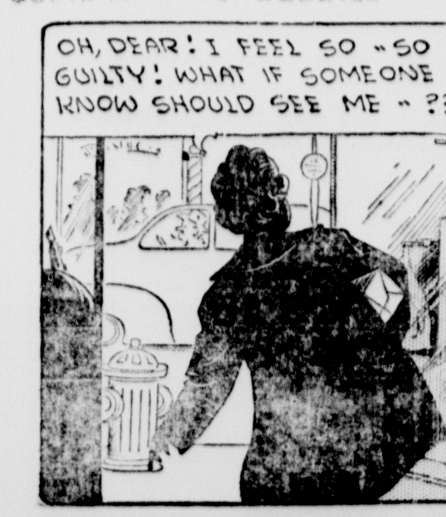

The governor also talked over political matters with William Boyle, chairman of the Democratic National committee.

At the Pentagon, the governor discussed methods of getting defense contracts for small plants in Michigan.

Elections Bring New Troubles In Israel

JERUSALEM — (AP) — Israel, beset by financial troubles and religious conflicts, today faced the added problem of parliamentary elections. All efforts to form a new cabinet have failed.

The situation was revealed last night with publication of an exchange of letters between Prime Minister David Ben - Gurion and President Chaim Weizman.

Ben-Gurion's regime was defeated in parliament two weeks ago and Weizman told him to try to form a new cabinet. Weizman said he feared a general election at this point might endanger "the stability of the state" and make it difficult for Israel to borrow money from other nations.

Ben-Gurion replied that he was unable to form a stable govern-

Florida Enjoys Heavy Winter Tourist Traffic

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

MIAMI—The other day a Miami tourist reported to police she had beaten off a would-be purse snatcher.

The thief ran, jumped into an automobile and fled.

The car was a 1951 Cadillac convertible.

This Gold Coast incident, in which even petty thievery is plush-lined, sets the pace for Greater Miami's best season since World War II. And with the boom, Florida has discovered a resort can be prosperous without gambling.

The "liberal element" always ballyhooed games of chance as an attraction equal to the sun. They screamed that shutting the casinos would kill the season.

Then Senator Estes Kefauver's crime investigation locked things up tighter than Philadelphia on a Sunday afternoon.

Dade County's sheriff was ousted for lax law enforcement. Greater Miami was closed to roulette, blackjack and kindred games. Open casinos, like Sunny Isles, the Boheme Club, the Little Palms and Greenacres have been shuttered.

Disappointed racketeers, hoping for a poor season so they could bring back gambling, have a new cry. They are screaming that the new boom is the result of war-conscious citizens taking a last whirl before national austerity sets in.

Whatever the reason, the railroads, airlines and highways have been taxed to near-capacity by ever-increasing crowds.

Legitimate business is up. The early season continued good despite occasional dips of the mercury.

Fashionable Lincoln Road on Miami Beach reports exceptional business despite high prices.

Hotels are bulging. Last winter there were 364 hotels on Miami Beach, and 11 new ones sprang up almost overnight. A standard tourist greeting here seems to be: "Are you stopping at the this year?"

"Now, that's a last year's hotel."

Even old-timers are paying the rates of $25 to $40 a day at such new plush jobs as the Casablanca, Royal York, Lombardi, Johnna and Sea Gull. They're all 100-rooms or better, with penthouse suites going, in some cases, as high as $75 a day, and there are takers at the price. Money is cheap.

Greater Miami's growth isn't solely transient. New permanent residents are flocking here. The Florida Power and Light Co. shows a 10.98 per cent increase in the number of electricity users this year over last.

Lone exception to the business-is-better story is the night club set.

Despite such performers as Joe E. Lewis, Martha Raye and Sophie Tucker, things are slack. One night club owner told the Miami Beach City Council it ought to call a referendum on restoration of the liberal gambling policy. Only in Miami Beach would anyone dare suggest use of public funds to allow the public to vote on the right to break a law.

A new policy of entertainment at every major hotel further hit the night spots. With top-notch entertainers in sound-proofed rooms, the hotels strive to keep guests under their roof.

This public-be-served policy reached a new high at one hotel, where all a guest has to do is flip a hankie onto the sands to summon alert beach boys with a fresh highball or sun tan lotion.

The hankie is supplied by the hotel.

Tropical Park race track ended its season with a 29½ per cent increase in the pari-mutuel handle. Hialeah wagering increased 22½ per cent. The Miami Beach Handicap handle was $1,552,238. Week day handles of more than $1,250,000 have been common. Dog tracks have done well. Only jai a-lai is off.

A large amount of the increased take formerly was directed into illegal channels. Havana, where gambling is legal, is doing less business than it did a year ago, proving that the Cuban neighbor holds no threat of competition because of its more liberal policy.

This perhaps is the biggest blow to open gambling since Col. Edward Riley Bradley closed his house in Palm Beach.

Corinne Calvet Urges Return To Femininity

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—Now is the time for all good women to return to being women.

This may look like a typewriter exercise, but it's actually Corinne Calvet's advice to American women in these trying times. The French charmer is earnest about it and needs no prodding by her press agent.

"I am becoming more and more an American every day," said the actress between scenes of "Peking Express." "But still I remember some European viewpoints. And I must say that they certainly helped in my marriage." (Her husband is actor John Bromfield).

"I firmly believe that the man should be the master in the family. And a woman's first duty is to make him as happy as possible.

"Corner of Paradise"

"I think this is more than ever important now that we face a war emergency. The men come home from work after facing all kinds of troubles and problems. A woman should do everything she can to make the home seem like a little corner of paradise that he looks forward to at the end of the day."

This may sound like a large order, but Miss Calvet said it's not hard. Be feminine, she advised, shaking her long tresses as a hint.

"Nearly all men like long hair, and women should go back to it," she declared. "You notice that men are impressed when they see a girl with long, flowing hair walking down the street. When she turns around, they may be disappointed by her face, but at least her hair is attractive.

Remaining attractive and feminine does not require huge bills at the beauty parlor, she added. She offered a few hints which I copied down at random: take care of your legs. Wash your hair often. Keep your fingernails in good shape. Use beauty cream or lotion after the bath. Keep all your skin as soft as your cheek.

Nor does making "a little corner of paradise" out of your home call for fancy furniture and novel knick-knacks.

Doesn't Take Much
"You can do it with little things—a flower here, a vase there," she declared. "Your home should reflect your personality and make you seem more beautiful."

Miss Calvet admitted that it was a European viewpoint that women should avoid competing with men in business. But she believes in it anyway.

"The most important career for a woman is making a home for her man," she repeated. "But that doesn't mean a woman cannot have influence."

Transmission of pictures over telephone wires first was demonstrated on May 19, 1924.

Says South Might Turn To G. O. P., Eisenhower

By MARQUIS CHILDS
WASHINGTON—The width of the table separating witness Thomas E. Dewey from his insulator, Senator Kenneth Wherry of Nebraska, is the gulf that divides the Republican party. Actually it is as great as the distance between Wherry's Nebraska and Dewey's New York state.

The exchange between the two men was also a footnote to the election campaign of 1948. Dewey could not express his true convictions in that campaign because in state after state were found Republican congressional candidates who were diametrically opposed to the views of the Republican presidential candidate.

After the muted candor of his speeches in that campaign, Dewey's forthright statement on troops to Europe was like a gust of fresh air. It was followed by Senator James Duff's equally clear and direct broadcast Sunday evening. It may well be a fatal mistake in this critical hour, Duff said, if we substitute political opinion for military judgment in what is clearly a military matter.

Stassen for Cooperation
Duff and Dewey are at opposite poles temperamentally as, in the past, they have been politically. Yet, their agreement on this issue and on the role of General Eisenhower would seem to unite them beyond the irritation of past disagreements. Similarly, Harold Stassen, the former Minnesota now president of the University of Pennsylvania, is firmly aligned with those who hold that cooperation with Western Europe is of paramount importance.

How the breach in the Republican party can be healed before 1952 it is impossible now to see. Even the expectation of what appeared to be certain victory was not sufficient to close it in '48.

Still another Republican faction was heard from the other day with Senator Karl Mundt of South Dakota openly proposing a new party to be formed in alliance with the Southern Democrats. This would be called the Liberty party and it would be anti-socialist, socialism in this instance being what ever Senator Mundt choose to brand with that name.

Party Has Possibilities
Such a party has real possibilities. It would have an appeal in rural areas where resentment of the domination of the cities is a growing force. Thus the Liberty party might unite Mississippi and South Dakota.

But it could hardly be expected to carry weight in any of the populous states. Even in highly prosperous farm areas the appeal would be dubious since farm subsidies and the government-enforced parity price system might well be branded as socialistic. The net effect would be to splinter the Republican party still further since a so-called Liberty party could hardly be expected to have any greater success in the south than the Dixiecrats had three years ago.

Democrats Are Tired
If this same deep chasm of division prevails next year, then it must be counted a tragedy. The Democratic party has been in power for nearly 20 years. In the very nature of things it is tired, enfeebled, ingrown with the habit of office holding. I believe that most Americans regardless of party would like to be able to turn to a positive alternative that offers them a future and not a return to the past.

Yet Senator Robert A. Taft, Wherry and the others who think as they do sometimes appear determined to make a Republican victory impossible. There was, of course, Taft's impressive triumph by a majority of more than 400,000 in Ohio last fall. But whether that can be translated into national terms is another matter.

What is sometimes overlooked with respect to the Ohio contest is that it was an illustration of the old political axiom about not being able to beat something with nothing. The Democrats seemed determined to demonstrate their bankruptcy by a wholly negative campaign—a candidate who was a cipher, and silly and wholly unrealistic attacks on the "Taft-Hartley slave labor law."

Ready for Change
Reports from the South have it that even in that traditional fortress of the Democratic party they are ready for a sweeping change in Washington. Give us, the word comes from the South, the right man and we will vote Republican. By the right man more often than not they mean Eisenhower. There are persistent rumors of the developing outline of a carefully worked out plan which would put at least five Southern states in the Republican column if General Eisenhower were at the top of the ticket.

Taft and Wherry have had their say. Whatever their intention in the first instance may have been, they have succeeded, as Dewey said, in encouraging defeatism at home and abroad. Since both have a thorough understanding of the politics of the senate, they can have had few illusions about how the final vote will go.

But they also understand how thoroughly under control is the machinery of the Republican party and how tightly the Taft faction holds the levers. The way those levers are pulled will determine how the votes are cast in the Republican convention next year. And those, or so the Taft group confidently assumes, are the decisive votes.

West Berlin Mayor Doesn't Think That Russia Wants War

DETROIT—(AP)—The mayor of West Berlin thinks the United States is under-estimating the possibilities of working out a peaceful solution with Russia on a political basis.

Mayor Ernst Reuther of West Berlin said here yesterday that "a strong and determined foreign policy would push the Soviets back."

Reuther, who helped the allies break the Russian supply blockade of Berlin two years ago, said he has "no fear of imminent war."

The mayor, here to speak at the Detroit Institute of Arts last night, said, "I don't have the impression that the Soviets want war."

But Reuther, a bitter foe of Communism, said West Germany is ready to recruit an army to fight on the side of the democracies in case Russia does attack.

Composer Of Music For 'Sweet Adeline' Dies In New York

NEW YORK — (AP) — Harry Armstrong, 72, who wrote the music for the famous song "Sweet Adeline," died today.

Richard Gerald, who wrote the lyrics, died in 1948.

Armstrong originally wrote words and music to the song under the title, "My Old New England home." Then it was revised to "My Rosalie, My Rosalie" with Gerald writing the words.

They changed it to "Sweet Adeline" after seeing posters advertising opera star Adeline Patti.

Survey Explained
In Detail at Club Meeting

The educational survey being conducted by the Escanaba school system was the subject of discussion at the regular meeting of the Escanaba Business and Professional Woman's club Tuesday evening at the Sherman hotel.

George Ruwitch, leader of a panel consisting of Miss Berenice Firkus, George Grab, Leon Schram and Edward Edick, explained the philosophy that led to the project. He stated that the board of education and the school administrators felt that, before embarking upon a building program, an inventory should be taken of the present program of instruction and a study made to determine the educational needs of the community. The survey was planned to encompass both these aims.

Methods Outlined

Miss Firkus, chairman of the language-arts committee, Mr. Schram, chairman of the health committee, and Mr. Grab, chairman of the citizenship committee, explained the methods used to gather material in each of these fields.

Mr. Edick, chairman of the building and community survey, said that the work of the first three committees was very closely related to the building and community survey. These committees are determining what is actually being done and Mr. Edick's committee is attempting to determine, in the interests of future expansion, the needs of the community. The committee is making a survey of the population trends in Escanaba, of the business and industry in the community and of the nature of the population. The implications of these three factors on the location of new buildings and on the type of instructional programs to be offered can easily be seen.

The data which is being collected by the local committees is being submitted to the bureau of school services of the University of Michigan where it will be digested and arranged in its final form.

Mr. Leclerc, Solost of the musical portion of the program featured a group of vocal solos by Mrs. Claude Leclerc who was accompanied by Mrs. Lillian Lafave.

Miss Josephine Ryan had charge of the program.

Kids ought to get back to the soil. Farming can offer fine opportunities to boys and girls who like the outdoors and are willing to learn and work the soil. So says handsome Dick Sprawls, a champion sweet potato grower from South Carolina.

It can pay off, too, says 15-year-old Dick, who raised 328 bushels of No. 1 yams on his acre plot in the annual 4-H contest conducted by Clemson College. Along with ten other young prize winners he recently enjoyed a trip to New York as a reward for his labors as the guest of a chain of food stores. Besides, his sweet potatoes sold at a $2.75 a bushel, putting a nice little piece of change for college in his piggy bank.

Dick wouldn't necessarily suggest you raise sweet potatoes as your first crop, if you do decide to experiment. As a matter of fact, you'd eat your sweet potatoes, by gosh, if you knew all the work a fellow puts in growing them. Says Dick:

"Sweet potatoes like to be planted in a high bed, quite some distance apart. When harvested they must be handled like eggs because they bruise easily. Then they must be put in a heated building at about 85 degrees until the cure begins. They are left two weeks, then put at 50 degrees in another building."

Lots of young moderns who have been baby sitting, would be well trained for nursing sweet potatoes along, but it is best to start your farming with a simple vegetable garden, suggests Dick.

Right now Dick, who lives on 450 acres in Barnwell County, expects a hydrogen plant to move in and it is possible he and his family will be looking for another farm. But he'll continue to grow club Miss Helen Elaine Stenson reported on the progress of the project of providing dental care for school children. Members discussed a project of the state federation to provide materials for mental therapy for patients at the Newberry hospital and it was decided to give financial aid to the program.

sweet potatoes no matter what. Dick's main objective is to be a veterinarian. He loves dogs and horses, in particular, and thinks he could make a real career out of being a veterinarian in his own section of the county. That is another career young people might give a thought to, suggests Dick.

A Hollywood screen star just said a mouthful when she gave this advice to girls: "Women are just plain silly if they don't dress to please their menfolk."

Often you know you will buy a hat or a suit or a dress just because your girl friend likes it. Actually, that is the wrong way to shop. Men have definite ideas about clothes, and since usually you are selecting a hat or a gown to please a man, why not buy it with his tastes in mind?

Men like frilly hats when they look feminine. On the other hand they do not like dizzy or silly hats. They like hats which have a tailored look, and which, strangely enough, resemble mannish styling. But they do not like any outrageous which resembles a tailored style and is decorated with bows or lace or veiling.

They like dresses which give a smart line to the figure, but they do not like exaggerated V-dip necklines or off-the-shoulder gowns which expose the bosom. They like feminine looking gowns which are in good taste as well as they admire chic, well-tailored mannish suits. If you attempt a tailored suit, however, choose clean smooth lines.

If you dress to suit your type, that is half the battle. Ruffles might look lovely on the girl who is unsophisticated, but if you are the sophisticated type to the line which best becomes you.

A man's pet hate, from all we can gather at this point, is the so-called babushka—that square piece of silk or cotton or other fabric which resembles a tablecloth which is quickly thrust over the head in an emergency.

There is nothing attractive about that kind of headgear. There could be something attractive about a similar type of headgear which would offer protection in stormy weather, without making the wearer look like a peasant girl. But these either are not available, or girls have not accepted them.

The same holds true—as it has for generations—there is nothing like a hat to make you look like a lady. Select it wisely and that is an achievement in itself.

'Mature Parent' Series Will Begin March 5

Quarry Plans Are Discussed

Reque Speaks To Local Clubwomen

The quarry area as a pool, park, and playground was discussed by T. H. Reque, city recreation director, at the meeting of the Manistique Women's club Tuesday afternoon. Reque was introduced by Mrs. E. T. Lundstrom, chairman of the club's civic committee.

Children skating on frozen water spilled from the fountain at Triangle park in 1945 first brought the question of recreation needs to the attention of the people of Manistique, the speaker said. From this point on Reque outlined the development of the recreation board and its current problems and propositions.

The recreation board, consisting of five members, was created by the city council primarily to provide recreation facilities rather than to promote sports or clubs.

The recreation needs of Manistique have increased from the original plan of providing facilities for skating and free basketball for service men to a variety of recreation interests which are all included in the tentative plans for developing the quarry pool area he stated.

Several Problems

The quarry area as a recreation site immediately posed several problems which had to be solved—specific allocation of land and finances by the city council, central planning, the advisability of using the pool for swimming and other associated problems, the speaker continued.

Of special interest to the women was the question of swimming in the quarry pool. Reque explained that the water as tested by Michigan State College would be safe for swimming as long as circulation was provided, during especially warm weather. The Inland Lime and Stone company agreed to do this by installing an electric fan to agitate the water to cause circulation of the fresh water at the bottom of the pool.

The greatest problem in this connection, Reque said, was the public liability of the city as soon as any provisions for swimming were made, the greatest expenditure in this respect being the fence which would cost $200 to build and which is absolutely necessary to close off the swimming area when the life guard is not on duty.

The speaker said that the quarry area as a recreation site has been recommended by several agencies making surveys of the area in the interests of the community.

Officers Nominated

During the business meeting an appeal for the Red Cross was expressed by the chairman of the 1951 roll call, Mrs. L. Wilson, and Mrs. Walter Busch, home service chairman, briefly described the home service phase of Red Cross.

Mrs. Earl LeBrasseur as chairman of the nominating company presented the slate of officers to be elected for 1951-1952. The proposed slate follows: President, Mrs. Russell Watson; vice president, Mrs. K. P. VanEyk; secretary, Mrs. A. W. Cockram; director, Mrs. William K. Sawyer; director, Mrs. Carl Anderson.

The music portion of the program included several accordion selections by Miss Janet Dixon who was presented to the group by Mrs. A. F. Hall.

The Tulip Festival of Holland, Mich., was enjoyed via a moving picture film accompanied by printed literature.

Tulips in wooden shoes formed the centerpiece decoration of the refreshment table. The committee consisted of Mrs. K. Bundy, chairman; Mrs. Elwood Taylor, Mrs. E. J. Thompson, Mrs. O. F. Smith, Mrs. J. Slining, Mrs. C. Slining, sr., and Mrs. Vern Linderoth.

Lyle Wilcox was best man. For her son's marriage Mrs. Lancour was attired in a black print dress with matching accessories.

A wedding dinner followed the ceremony at the home of the groom's parents, with about 60 guests present.

Out-of-town guests were: David Lepine, of Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Roy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rosenthal, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, Merck Burdette, Mrs. Sheila Yokum, and Richard Howard, of Marquette; Lyle Wilcox and David Lancour, of Milwaukee.

Questions On Special School Vote Monday Are Answered By Hall

Two questions being asked by many voters concerning the millage proposal at the special school election Monday were answered yesterday by A. F. Hall, superintendent of city schools.

One of the questions, he said, concerns the expenditure of funds raised by a continuance of the three and one-half mill tax for another 10 years. Some taxpayers, the superintendent indicated seem to seek assurance that the funds will be actually spent for the school expansion program.

In answering this, Hall said that the school board at the special election specifically state that the funds are to be placed in a sinking fund for building repair and construction. Therefore, the money is definitely earmarked by the voters for a specific program and cannot be expended for any other purpose.

Spending Reviewed
Moreover, he said, the state makes an annual review of school expenditures to ascertain that all funds are spent properly. Any

Hawks Defeat Falcons; Calumet Here Tonight

Ted Olson Gets Three Scores

LaLonde, Sampson Provo Hit Nets

Sparked by Ted Olson's first period hat trick, the Escanaba Hawks ran up a 5-1 margin in the opening frame over the second place Eagle River Falcons last night and went on to win a fast hockey game, 7-5, at the indoor rink.

It was a good thing the Hawks scored those five goals in the first period because, for a while in the second period, it appeared that the game would be a replica of the Marquette-Escanaba game—in reverse.

The Falcons came back with three straight goals in the second period to bring the score to 5-4 and the Hawks appeared to have folded completely. But just before the second frame ended, Harold Sampson, bewhiskered Hawk defenseman scored on a solo to increase the Hawks' margin to 6-4.

Dusty Scores Two
Scoring slowed to a walk in the last period, exactly half the period having passed before Dusty LaLonde scored for the Hawks on a solo to stretch the lead to 7-4. "Chic" Chicarelli, Falcon center, scored the final goal at 14:10 on a pass from Arne Beaudin.

The Hawks looked sharp for a change in the first period. Usually, that is their bad period. But Ted Olson banged in a beautiful shot from near the blue line and the boards at 2:05 to set the pace. At 3:30 LaLonde skated in close on a pass from Bechtold to score the second Hawk goal. "Tag" Tagliabraci, bruny Eagle River defenseman, put the Falcons back in the game on a pass from Earl Brandon.

Provo Bulges Net
But Ted came back three minutes later on an assist from Bechtold. Then came the score that tickled the crowd. Little Buddy Provo, standing near the goalie's crease, took a pass from behind the net from Jim Ward and banked the puck in the net before the startled goalie, Tony Nemanik, could move an inch.

Ted Olson made it 5-1 at 16 minutes when he teamed up with brother, Marc. That lead was what saved the day for the Hawks. The game was fast and hotly contested. Although the feeling was not so bitter as in some Hawk-Falcon games, 14 penalties were called, including one of 10 minutes against Sampson for misconduct.

Fred Brunelle of Marquette represented Eagle River as linesman in the absence of Jim Seifert, who was ill.

Lemon Signs; Tops Feller

NEW YORK—(P)—Bob Lemon signed a Cleveland Indian contract just before the midnight holdout deadline that probably makes him the "highest paid pitcher in baseball."

A Cleveland official put the tag of "highest paid pitcher in baseball" on Lemon.

Lemon won 23 games last season, the only pitcher to do so, and lost 11. Feller won 16 and lost 11. In addition, Lemon was the club's most effective pinch hitter. He hit a half dozen home runs and was in a class by himself with 26 runs batted in.

Meanwhile, Catcher Yogi Berra of the New York Yankees and third baseman Eddie Yost of the Washington Senators, beat the holdout tag by signing yesterday.

Berra fell in line for an estimated $30,000. Yost signed for an estimated $16,000.

Howe Is Declared Outstanding Star

DETROIT — (P)—The Sports Guild award committee has chosen right wing Gordie Howe of the Detroit Red Wings as the outstanding hockey player of 1950.

Howe was cited by the committee for his "remarkable comeback" after his critical injury suffered last spring in the Stanley cup playoffs.

Radars Feature 'Pup' Gresnick

Escanaba Six Near Third Place

The fast traveling Escanaba Hawks, with a playoff berth already clinched, meet the Calumet Radars at the fairgrounds rink here tonight at 8:15 in a game that could prove a stepping stone to a third place berth for the Hawks.

As a result of their 7-5 victory over the Eagle River Falcons here last night, the Hawks now have

PARKING SPACE WILL BE PLOWED
There will be plenty of good parking space at the fairgrounds tonight for fans attending the Hawk-Calumet game, team officials said today. The road to the exhibition building and the parking area will be plowed. Bob Grabowski, rink manager, said the ice would be in perfect shape for the game.

nine victories in Northern Wisconsin-Michigan league competition. That gives them 18 points (two for each win) and leaves them only three points behind the third place Calumet crew.

A victory tonight for the Hawks would put them only one point out of third place (Calumet has one tie game, which gives them one extra point). After that, the Hawks would have four games in which to move into third place.

"Puppy" Will Be Here
The Radars are one of the most colorful teams in the Northern Wisconsin-Michigan circuit. In Frank (Puppy) Gresnick, they have a veteran hockey player whose skating and stick work never fail to draw the applause of the crowd. He is backed by a veteran crew including Johnny Whittaker, Rube Parske, Pete Lehto and Eko Kemp.

In the nets, the Radars have a classy goalie, Frank Soltich who has been a formidable barrier to all foes this season.

In addition to this crew, names of the Makolins, Wiinimaki, Dahlgren, and Jaaskie are familiar to local hockey fans who have seen the Calumet crew perform here before.

The Hawks undoubtedly will rely on the same lineup tonight that carried them to victory last night. That will mean that Ted and Marc Olson will join with Russ Hilton on one line and Dusty LaLonde, Tony Bonacci and Guy Poce or Bud Provo will be on the other front line.

On defense, duties will be divided by Walt Bechtold, Jim Ward, Lolly Rose and Harold Sampson with Ben Artwick, who played one of his best games of the year last night, in the nets.

Sooner Grid Stars Told To Stop Betting

NORMAN, Okla.—Dr. George L. Cross, University of Oklahoma president, today promised a rigid crackdown on Sooner athletes caught betting on sporting events.

Dr. Cross threatened to bar the athletes from future university competition after seeing published reports that parlay cards have been displayed in the athletic dormitory and players openly discuss betting on basketball and football games.

"I don't know to what extent athletes bet on contests," the president said, "but I am going to suggest to athletic director Bud Wilkinson that any athlete caught betting on athletic events or using parlay cards be barred from future competition."

Wilkinson was out of town today.

The Daily Oklahoman said that betting among Oklahoma athletes is commonplace.

The newspaper said a prominent Sooner football player distributed parlay cards in the athletic dormitory during the 1950 season. Side bets also have been placed by many players on big games, the paper said.

"Sometimes the side bets are between squad members but on big games—both basketball and football—bets with outsiders also have been placed," the Daily Oklahoman story continued.

"Usually the bets aren't too much, ranging from $5 to $25, although at times someone will bet $100 on an important game."

"The football team of 1943 probably made the most money betting when it upset Missouri at Norman and North Carolina in the Sugar bowl, entering both games as the underdog."

No decision has been reached, Irish said, adding that the future of the college sport in the Garden "depends on future developments, the attitude of public authorities, the colleges and our own conclusions."

CAIN WINS MEET
LAKELAND, Fla.—(P)—Charles C. Cain, Detroit Associated Press sports editor, won the newsmen's division of the Detroit Tiger golf tournament with a 101. Lyall Smith, sports editor of the Detroit Free Press, and Bill Snyder, a St. Louis radio announcer, were runners up with 109.

STUDY VIDEO
CHICAGO—(P)—The National Collegiate Athletic association council meets today with the group's television committee to begin work on a fundamental program of controlled video projects.

The basketball fix scandal in New York City probably will come up for discussion after the television program has been settled.

Spilling The Dope

By Charlie Larson

Escanaba fans, where is your red blood? The Escanaba Hawks hockey team is deserving of much more support than they got at last night's fine game against the Eagle River Falcons.

If they don't get better support tonight against Calumet and Sunday in their windup game against Marquette, you probably can kiss fast hockey good bye in Escanaba.

It costs a lot of money to put together a hockey team like the one that represents Escanaba in the Northern Wisconsin-Michigan league. Traveling costs are high, especially meals and hotel bills on two-day road trips to the Copper Country and Eagle River. Then there are equipment, insurance, rent on the indoor rink, advertising and a hundred smaller items, all of which add up.

At this stage of the game, the Hawks are financially deep in the red. A few "angels" will have to pick up the checks at the end of the season if the crowds don't improve tonight and Sunday. And you can bet (oh, what a horrid word these days!) your bottom dollar that there won't be any angels around come next year if they are convinced by Sunday that Escanaba won't support hockey.

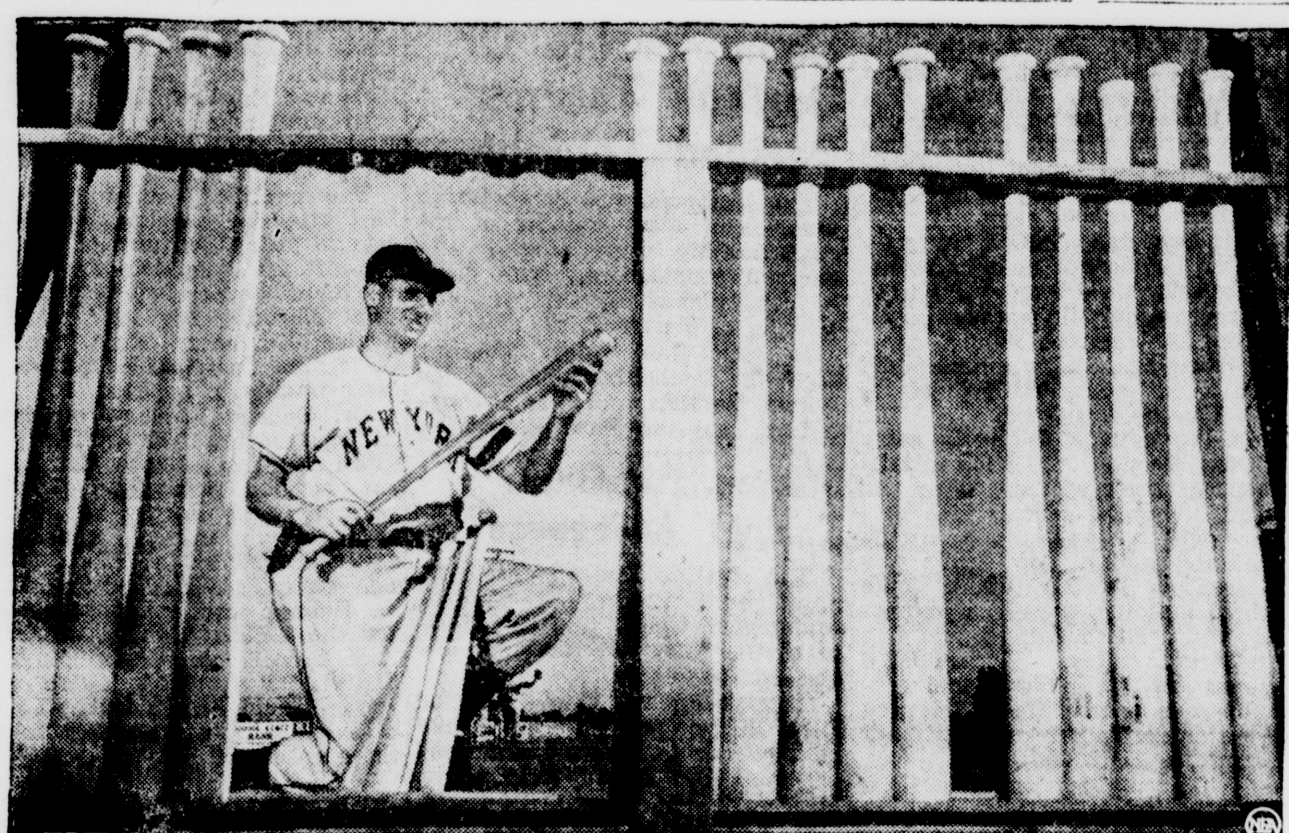

We're not of the belief that sport fans should support hockey just because some people think it ought to be supported. Hockey, just like any other sport, has no inherent right to be supported unless it proves itself.

But we believe it has proven itself in Escanaba this year. The Hawks—every one of them—are a fine bunch of boys. But what is more important, they have given Escanaba fine, fast, interesting hockey.

There is action every minute. Sport fans have to go a long way to find such interesting, lively entertainment for their money.

There are going to be a lot of disappointed hockey fans if there is no team in Escanaba next year. And there won't be unless fans get out tonight and Sunday to help the boys over the hump.

If you are a regular hockey goer, get out tonight and bring a friend or two with you. If you are only an occasional fan, make tonight and Sunday the "occasion." Support the Hawks. They deserve it.

Wertz, Evers Now Are Holdouts

LAKELAND, Fla.—(P)—Two of the Detroit Tigers' star outfielders were on the sidelines today as Manager Red Rolfe called the full squad together for the official opening of spring training.

Vic Wertz and Hoot Evers, the lads who can swat the ball out of the park, were frankly holdouts. They wanted bigger pay raises than management has offered to date.

Prospects for an agreement with management didn't look so good. It was expected two days ago the pair would be in the fold by today.

Both, however, appeared determined to pass up the first several days of practice and wait until general manager Billy Evans, who controls the purse strings, arrives on the scene Saturday.

It was understood Evans was in no mood to offer any more folding money than he indicated in the "final" offers rejected by the two outfielders. Evans has indicated the Tiger payroll is reaching the saturation point and can't stand much more pressure.

Wertz, 26-year-old rightfielder, received $17,500 last year. It is understood he was offered $20,000 this year but demanded $23,500. Wertz led the Tigers with 123 runs batted in last season. The big fellow batted .308.

Evers, 30-year-old leftfielder, was understood to have been offered $4,000 more than the $24,000 he got in 1950 but wanted a "little more." Hoot batted in 103 runs last season and had a .323 batting average.

All three outfielders had near-perfect fielding records.

The Tiger management seemed none too concerned about a third holdout—shortstop Eddie Lake. He batted zero last season in the comparatively few games he played.

Manager Rolfe allowed his pitchers to relax yesterday. He plans to put the entire squad through drills and batting practice today.

Second Baseman Gerry Priddy won the first annual Detroit Tiger golf tournament sponsored by the Lakeland Chamber of Commerce and a local newspaper.

Priddy shot a 37-36-73, one over par. Coach Dick Barto was runner up with 40-34-74. Hal Newhouse was third with 38-38-76 and Paul Trout was fourth with 41-38-79.

GETS RACING POST
DETROIT — (P)—Oakley R. Bramble, former newspaperman and public relations specialist, was named today as secretary of the Michigan Racing commission.

Argentina always has been red hot for sports and President Juan Peron has urged his athletes to make these games a home town triumph.

Of nine championships won yesterday, Argentina took four, the U. S. two and Cuba, Colombia and Mexico one each.

The unofficial point standings on the customary basis of 10-5-4-3-2-1 for six places now give Argentina 111; U. S. 97; Mexico 39; Brazil 27; Peru 24; Chile 23; Cuba 15; Colombia 11; Trinidad 3; Ecuador 5; Jamaica 3; Panama 3 and Guatemala 2.

Rapid River Plays Rock; Perkins And Cooks Win

Eskymos Ready For Menominee

With "all hands" in good shape, spirit is high among the Eskymo cagers this week as they set their sights on winning the district class B tournament which opens at the junior high school gym Friday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Coach Steve Baltic said today that Paul Baldwin's leg, which has been bothering him off and on since he injured it in a game several weeks ago, is as good as ever and Baldwin, a good play-maker, is all set to go.

Baltic said Baldwin probably would get a starting assignment Friday night when the Eskymos pair off against Menominee at 9 o'clock.

The other four starters will be chosen from Dick Shomin, Jim Heiden, Paul Gunderman, Tom Smith and JoJo Johnston.

Ready For Maroons
"We know we can defeat Menominee because we turned in two wins over them during the season," said Baltic. "But we're not going to rest on our laurels. We're not forgetting that Menominee has been district champion the last three years. On the other hand, we're not conceding them a thing. The boys are going out there to play the best ball they can and we're expecting to get in to the finals with Gladstone Saturday night."

Gladstone opens the tournament at 7:30 Friday night against Stephenson.

Meanwhile, in the St. Joseph camp there was a slight ray of hope that Pete Kutches, star junior guard, may be able to get into the Norway game.

"The doctor said last night that Kutches' injured arm was coming along pretty well and there is a slight possibility he may be able to play Friday night," said St. Germain.

Trojans Determined
"His presence would no doubt spark the team but, of course, we have no intention of using him unless he is pronounced fit by the doctor. No victory, even in a tournament, is worth risking the physical welfare of any player."

But even if Kutches is benched, the Trojans will be a determined bunch against Norway. They feel that they can beat the tough Vikings even though short-handed. If Kutches is unable to play, the major share of the scoring burden probably will fall on the shoulders of Don Paulin, second high scorer, Senior Jack Courneene and Sophomore Fred Boddy. Bill Baker and Jim Gravelle, two juniors, probably will fill out the starting five.

The St. Joseph-Norway game is slated for 9 o'clock Friday night with the 7:30 opener scheduled between Baraga of Marquette and Bark River-Harris.

Braves Sharp In Practice

GLADSTONE—After having been crippled by illness near the end of the regular season, the Gladstone high school Braves appear to be on the comeback trail as the annual tournament nears.

Apparently all of the players have recovered from the flu and are in fair shape again. They have looked sharp in practice sessions this week and Coach Eldon Keil believes his boys are ready to play the type of game they are capable of turning in.

The Braves, last year's Upper Peninsula class C champions, are competing in class B this year.

They will meet Stephenson in the opening game of the Class B tournament Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Escanaba junior high school gymnasium. The Braves defeated Stephenson during the regular season.

Coach Keil said he would rely on his usual starting lineup of Tom Moreau and John Syverson at forwards, Capt. Phil Creten at center, and Jim LaLonde and Joe Sutter at guards.

In reserve will be Roger Beauchamp, Wayne Marmillek, Martin Becker jr., Lowell LaPlante and Ed Bunno.

Perkins And Cooks Win

ROCK—Rapid River and Rock, two rivals of long standing, will meet at 9 o'clock tonight in the Class D windup of a three-game district tournament card that promises plenty of action.

In the semi-windup, Vulcan, tournament favorite in class D, takes on Cooks, which eked out a thrilling 39-38 victory over Powers in the opener last night. This game is scheduled for 7:30.

The 6 o'clock opener finds Hermansville, another top-ranking class E team, pitted against Carney, which isn't expected to provide much opposition.

Perkins Scores 89
In addition to the Cooks-Powers game last night, which was as close as any ball game could be (except a tie), Perkins defeated Daggett in one of the highest scoring tournament games on record. Using reserves most of the game, Perkins racked up 89 points to 10 for Daggett, which has only 10 grades.

So nept was the Daggett crew, that it did not make a single field goal until three minutes had passed in the third quarter. It made only three field goals in the whole game with Don Buckmaster scoring six of his team's 10 points.

Coach Tom Gerovac of Perkins used his regulars only a few minutes and his team ran up a 30-1 score at quarter time and stretched it to 49-1 at the half way mark. Matt Tuskan and Lyle Kinnart, Perkins reserves, led the scoring with 21 points each.

Scorcher All the Way
The Cooks-Powers game was a scorcher all the way with an eight-point Cooks lead in the first period proving the turning point as Powers outscored Cooks in the two middle periods and the last was equal.

Powers did a good job of throttling Keith Cutler, sensational Cooks forward, holding him to 13 points. But in doing so, they forgot about Douglas Murray, who netted 16 points that hurt.

Powers' scoring was well divided with seven players breaking into the scoring column and Joe Veaser heading it with five points.

Shamrocks, Kesslers In Star Tilt Tonight

It's Shamrock-Kessler time again tonight. The two giants of the American league of the city basketball association clash in another important game tonight at 8:15 at the junior high school gym.

The card, which opens at 6:45 with a game between the K. of C. and Clairmonts, is a benefit for the association. Proceeds will be used to pay officials.

If the Shamrocks lose tonight, it will mark the end of their domination of city league basketball the last several years. If they win, they will go into a tie for the league leadership with Kesslers.

The two teams have been rivals for several years under different names and their games are always marked with plenty of action. Tonight's should be no different.

Former Winners Cop Golf Matches
ORMOND BEACH, Fla.—(P)—Two former winners of the South Atlantic women's golf tourney stepped out today in quarter-final matches to try to repeat.

They were Marjorie Lindsay of Decatur, Ill., 1949 winner, and Carol Dirlinger of Tiffin, Ohio, division of the Detroit Tiger golf tournament with a 101. Lyall Smith, sports editor of the Detroit Free Press, and Bill Snyder, a St. Louis radio announcer, were runners up with 109.

CAIN WINS MEET
LAKELAND, Fla.—(P)—Charles C. Cain, Detroit Associated Press sports editor, won the newsmen's division of the Detroit Tiger golf tournament with a 101. Lyall Smith, sports editor of the Detroit Free Press, and Bill Snyder, a St. Louis radio announcer, were runners up with 109.

STUDY VIDEO
CHICAGO—(P)—The National Collegiate Athletic association council meets today with the group's television committee to begin work on a fundamental program of controlled video projects.

The basketball fix scandal in New York City probably will come up for discussion after the television program has been settled.

Spring Is Coming, March To Bring Eclipse of Sun

ANN ARBOR—A partial eclipse of the sun on March 7 and the arrival of spring on March 21 will provide the third month of the year with more than the usual astronomical highlights.

The eclipse will take place near sunset and will cover up only about nine per cent of the sun's surface, according to Dr. Hazel M. Losh, assistant professor of astronomy at the University of Michigan.

"The necessary requirements for a solar eclipse are to have the moon in a new phase, which means that the moon passes between the earth and the sun, and also for the three bodies to be lined up in a row so that the moon will blot out a part or all of the sun as viewed from the earth," Dr. Losh says.

In this region, the eclipse will begin at 5:15 p. m., EST, on Wednesday, March 7, and will be over at 6:09 p. m., just before the sun disappears over the horizon, Dr. Losh says the eclipse will be easily visible if the weather is clear despite the fact it will take place so close to the horizon. Even though the sun's light will be considerably dimmed, she suggests using heavily smoked glass or dense film negatives as protection for the eyes.

"Spring is due at 5:26 a. m., EST, on Wednesday, March 21," Dr. Losh reports. "At this time, the sun will cross the equator and continue its journey northward bringing with it longer days and more warmth."

Spring is arriving nearly six hours later than it did in 1950, she says, because it has taken the sun 365.24219 days to make its yearly journey around the earth. The fact that the sun can't make its trip in exactly 365 days is the reason why we add an extra day to the calendar every four years to keep us in tune with sun's travels.
